Winter Aid 2025 Blankets for
Bangladesh Impact Report

Assalamu Alaikum Wa Rahmatullahi Wa Barakatuh,

Alhamdulillah, through your kindness and support, Sadaqah Aid Foundation has successfully completed the distribution of 450 winter blankets to vulnerable families in Golapgonj, Sylhet, Bangladesh.

This winter, many families especially the elderly, children, and those in hardship faced bitter cold without adequate protection. Your generosity has provided them with warmth, comfort, and relief during the harshest months of the year. For these families, a simple blanket is not just fabric it is dignity, hope, and the reassurance that they are not forgotten.

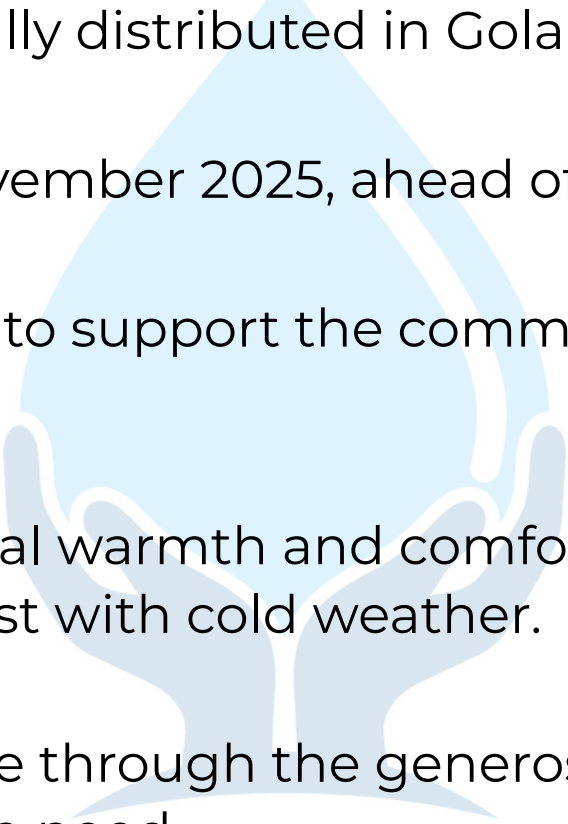

May Allah accept your efforts.

WINTER AID 2025 BLANKETS FOR BANGLADESH IMPACT SUMMARY

- 450 winter blankets successfully distributed in Golapgonj, Sylhet, Bangladesh.
 - Distribution completed in November 2025, ahead of the coldest months.
 - Blankets were sourced locally to support the community and ensure high quality, warm materials.
 - The initiative provided essential warmth and comfort during a period when rural households struggle most with cold weather.
 - The project was made possible through the generosity and support of donors who continue to uplift those in need.

HOW THE WINTER BLANKET DISTRIBUTION TRANSFORMED LIVES

Before, families struggled through harsh winter nights:

- Families endured cold nights without adequate coverings or insulation.
- Elderly individuals and children were highly vulnerable to seasonal illness.
- Restless sleep and discomfort were common due to the low temperatures.
- Limited financial resources prevented families from purchasing warm materials.
- Winter brought stress and fear for those already facing hardship.

Now, thanks to your donations:

- Households gained immediate warmth and relief during freezing nights.
- Children and elderly members were better protected from illness.
- Families experienced improved sleep and greater night time comfort.
- Receiving a blanket brought dignity, reassurance, and emotional comfort.
- The community felt supported, knowing help arrived when it was needed most.
